The Huge Market For Central Command's Innovative Services

There are a massive 213.6 million businesses in the world. Over 6 million are in the UK and Ireland, 3 million in Australia and New Zealand and around 35 million in the US and Canada.

Here's the big takeaway... Every business that seeks success MUST market itself effectively to achieve its goals. The better the marketing, the more successful the business becomes.

Yet companies waste billions on marketing that either fails to get the results they want or simply doesn't work.

Henry Ford once said that half the money he spent on advertising was wasted, the problem was that he didn't know which half.

As a Central Command business development & marketing agency director you will be trained to provide radical solutions to the biggest challenge faced by businesses today: Getting more customers!

You will discover how to do this by deploying the tools, templates and techniques of our time tested, step-by-step business growth system. The system guides you in:

- 1 Selecting and qualifying prospective clients.
- 2 From the templates create a success plan that guarantees to meet those goals.
- 3 Consult and implement by providing the latest and most powerful solutions to exceed the clients expectations.

Your Central Command training arms and empowers you with the training, techniques, systems, knowhow and backup to work confidently with your clients and build a lucrative business for yourself.

A Different Way Of Thinking...

Central Command utilises a mindset that approaches the issues of business somewhat differently.

Here's a little story to illustrate the point:

"American astronauts upon first going into space soon discovered that their pens didn't work in zero gravity. So NASA embarked upon a program to invent a writing instrument that would work in outer space... After spending millions of dollars and burning thousands of man-hours on research and engineering, they finally developed a "pump pen" that could write anything, anywhere, at any angle.

Meanwhile, in the secret laboratories behind the Iron Curtain, Soviet Union scientists casually took note of the researches of their American counterparts. They spent almost no time and no money solving this problematic dilemma. They already had the answer, their cosmonauts used...pencils."

From the book 'Out Of The Box Marketing' by David Abingdon

What Do Businesses Really Want?

Central Command focuses on what businesses really want.

It isn't new technology, better products, coaching, training, administration or any other such function or service.

No. When it gets down to the nitty-gritty fundamentals, nothing is more important to a business than making money. Plain and simple. That's the reason they are in business and as such they are forever seeking ways to make more revenue faster and easier. It's the Holy Grail of business.

If you can help businesses achieve this goal then most of their other problems and challenges fall into insignificance and you are hailed as the superhero, their trusted adviser and the go to person.

Rapid Business Growth

Central Command business development & marketing agencies provide businesses with cutting edge online and offline processes and platforms that are scalable and rapidly deliver a continual stream of qualified leads, enquiries and sales that generate more money.

The Central Command Credo

The principles of marketing are universal. That's because human nature is constant, consistent and for the most part, predictable.

Even before the advent of the internet and modern media, the rules and fundamentals of marketing were well-known and understood. Except for the variables of language, culture, products, industry and market, those fundamentals are the same throughout the world.

That is why Central Command's unique solutions and services work anywhere and why the market is so huge and the opportunities so breathtaking.

Consulting, Services & Deal Making

Not only can you earn recurring fees from consulting but also from Central Command products & services and from the magic of deal making.

Utilising Central Command's deal making processes can provide you with additional contingency & success fees - based upon a percentage of the profits you make for your clients.

Plus, you'll learn the simple but hugely powerful deal making 'value approach' to negotiating shares (at no cost to you) in your clients' businesses. This is a time-tested capital creation method that places you firmly on the road to generating real wealth by providing indispensable value to your clients.

A Lucrative And Professional Business...

Central Command offers you the rare chance to be in on the ground floor of a truly outstanding and highly profitable business opportunity.

Here's why...

In 2020, despite the pandemic, digital marketing spending in the UK grew to a whopping £15.6 billion, $9.5 billion in Australia and a staggering $365 billion in the US. It continues to grow at a rapid and almost exponential pace and that is because the internet is now actively used by around 89% of people to find the things they want.

It is huge, unstoppable and will only get bigger.

If a business wants to develop and grow then it must promote itself in the places where that 89% of people are looking - and that is online using social media and search engines.

The internet has levelled the marketing playing field and every business should take advantage of its power, potential and the abundant opportunities it can yield.

But it isn't just about the internet. There are other equally powerful methods that can provide further windows of opportunity. And this is where Central Command distinguishes itself. We utilise a combination of offline and online methods to maximise results to the full.

The problem for the vast majority of businesses is that they are either unaware or they lack the marketing expertise to take advantage of these online (and offline) opportunities to the full.

And that's where YOU enter... In partnership with Central Command, you'll provide a range of powerful yet affordable digital and 'analogue' marketing solutions to businesses that offer them real bottom line results which are trackable, measurable and accountable.

Most of all, you will answer the biggest challenge that businesses face today: Getting a reliable and continuous flow of new customers, sales and of course, revenue!

Guaranteeing Your Success By Guaranteeing Your Clients Success

RISK
FREE

One of the biggest barriers to any sale and the reason why so many fruitful business relationships never happen is because the prospective client has not gained sufficient trust in the company and/or the salesperson from whom they are buying... Confidence has not been established.

Prospects need to feel comfortable and not at risk.

Central Command provides you with the answer to this show-stopper by reversing the risk and removing the barrier to the initial sale with our industry-first guarantee.

Your prospective customers will be safe and secure in the knowledge that their trust in you is worthy and backed by our iron-clad guarantee:

'If it doesn't work then you don't pay a penny'.

NO OTHER BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT, MARKETING OR ADVERTISING COMPANY OFFERS SUCH AN IMPACTFUL GUARANTEE.

We've made it easy for you to gain more clients and make more sales!

Product Fulfilment - Done For You

To support you in assisting your clients, Central Command have developed an innovative and comprehensive suite of high quality products and services.

For the most part, the heavy lifting of fulfilling and delivering many of these products (particularly digital services) is provided directly by Central Command HQ and by trusted partners considered to be among the very best specialists in the world.

This means you can focus more time in developing your business and solving the marketing and business development challenges of your clients.

Grow Your Agency Locally, Nationally And Internationally

Work Anywhere...

With leads and enquiries generated using Central Command's Business Success System you have the option to acquire and work with clients anywhere in the world.

More importantly, a Central Command business consulting & marketing agency gives you the personal and financial freedom to work from anywhere in the world.

Client generation, online meetings, consultations, automated product fulfilment, offsite campaigns and centralised billing means that you do not have to be present or in-person to run a successful business.

In the initial training, you'll learn how to promote and maximise your business to achieve high market penetration and to generate a continuous flow of qualified enquires from anywhere - to anywhere - around the globe!

Have Clients Anywhere!

This is the 21st Century... The era of instant communication, the worldwide web, global social media, borderless e-commerce, multilingual websites and multi-national marketing.

The scope and reach of your Central Command business development & marketing agency can be local, regional, national or worldwide. It's up to you. The days of being confined to a local area are gone. You can now truly own an international business with clients in other countries around the world.

With Central Command's technology, products, services, payment and invoicing gateways, you and your agency do not need to be confined to a small geographic area!

You can literally be a global business from the start! We will show you how.

This offers you massive scope for sales growth and, with our support, the added opportunity to up-scale and develop your business with the recruitment of agents to work for you.

Helping Businesses Increase Revenue

Driving More Customers Into A Business

By definition, businesses need to grow. It's part of their DNA.

To do this, many owners and entrepreneurs realise that they need specialist help because they either lack the marketing and online skills (and don't have the time to learn) or they recognise that it's better and easier to contract it out to an expert and trusted adviser.

Of course, many don't get around to finding a suitable consultant or they have had a bad experience and so go back to bumbling along. Neither of these inactions get them to where they want to go and so they continue to do the things that they've always done and get the results they've always got.

Central Command's proactive Battle Plan attracts and appeals to those business leaders who are active, dedicated and serious in their desire to grow and develop their business and themselves.

Walking The Talk

Battle Plan

Battle Plan is Central Command's premier campaign marketing product that you will offer to rapidly grow the clients' businesses. Working closely with CC HQ you will use the proprietary step-by-step business consulting process to gather essential information and construct the campaigns to achieve the sales and revenue goals of the client.

Battle Plan is more than a product, it is a comprehensive road map to your client's, and your own, success.

- 1 LEAD GENERATION - Deploy up to 12 powerful proprietary strategies.
- 2 CLIENT ACQUISITION - Convert and qualify leads into paying clients.
- 3 RESEARCH - Use our Business Discovery Tools to gather critical information.
- 4 PROPOSAL - Complete the campaign plan template and submit proposal.
- 5 IMPLEMENTATION - Action and manage the campaign.
- 6 MANAGEMENT - Ongoing maintenance of sales and revenues.

The Central Command Up-Scaling Process

The Central Command Business Success System is a specially designed system that can be used by you to develop a robust business that goes beyond a one or two man band.

It includes the Up-Scaling Process that offers knowhow, backup and hands-on support to directly assist you in expanding your Central Command business development & marketing agency by selecting, recruiting and training suitable agents to work and sell for you.

Successfully developing your business, as detailed in the Up-Scaling Process blueprint, can lead to a significant increase in your revenue and personal income. This in turn will increase the asset value of your business and make it more attractive should you wish, at some time, to sell.

Huge Income Potential And A Saleable Asset

With your Central Command consulting, products, deal making and services producing healthy margins, plus your up-scaling in place, the potential for you to earn a six figure income (and more) is very attainable.

From the highly attractive Google page 1 product (Instant Boost) to lead & client generation systems and all the other business development and marketing solutions that you will be able to offer, opportunities are in abundance for you.

And, because clients pay monthly for consulting, products and services, your earnings can snowball and cumulate exponentially month on month.

Plus there's more... When you feel the time has come to move on or to retire, you have the option to sell or pass-on your business. An agency business with a strong client base, goodwill and recurring income could sell for many times its annual revenue or profit. Good to know!

Toolbox, Templates, Processes And Services

The Business Development & Marketing Agency Director's Toolbox

Central Command provides you with a massive professional toolbox of powerful business growth materials and resources to aid you in offering services and campaigns that meet your clients needs and goals.

How You Will Get Results For Clients

As a Central Command business development & marketing agency director your primary services to clients are focused on dramatically increasing their revenues. To do this, your consulting utilises a plethora of digital marketing services that includes results-based online advertising, enhanced landing pages, Instant Boost, response devices, email marketing and other direct lead generation methods.

Additionally, you'll offer a selection of offline strategies and marketing techniques to add to the overall mix and boost results.

Although we train you in all these services the good news is that fulfilment of the digital marketing services are done for you by Central Command HQ.

To ensure that you provide a full service you will also offer a range of other digital products to ensure that the transformation that you make to the clients revenues and business remains profitable and permanent.

Receive A Constant Flow Of Qualified Leads.

Ask any business owner... They understand that if they don't have (or can't get) a continuous flow of customers they will fail.

Generating customers is the life blood of every business including your Central Command business development & marketing agency.

That's why we provide you with the tools to generate an abundance of qualified leads and enquiries.

Your success is not left to chance. We take our partnership with you very seriously and are with you every step of the way. To enable this, you will have access to our amazing array of advanced lead generation software and client acquisition platforms. Not one or two but twelve powerful and imaginative systems.

Owning a Central Command franchise means that together we walk the talk and practice what we preach.

This gives you the time to focus on producing results for your clients and growing both their business and your own.

PLUS... The CC Club

Central Command has launched a new type of business club that brings business owners & controllers, entrepreneurs and senior decision makers together in a highly innovative and exciting way.

The premise and offerings of the club are tried and tested with staggering conversion rates from being a prospect to joining as a member and then to becoming a client.

The rationale behind such high conversion rates is that joining the club is free and it offers high perceived value benefits that business people can't get elsewhere.

Being a member of the club enamours trust and confidence in you as leader of your own CC Club group. This results in a smooth and natural transition for a good proportion of members to become your Central Command clients.

Training & Support

You will be transformed into the professional, the expert and the Authority that businesses are seeking...

World Class Training

Your Central Command business development & marketing agency training is an accelerated learning experience...

A world-class, business education that is unique in its content and empowering in its delivery. It is designed and focused on providing you with everything you need to fast track your success and build a lucrative and professional business in partnership with Central Command.

On the course, your level of knowledge and application will be enhanced to 'expert' level giving you the confidence and skills to tackle the issues facing today's businesses.

Fast Track

The course also includes summarised training, tools and resources that fast track your success. This positions you to kick-start your client acquisition and service delivery immediately upon graduating from the course.

PLUS, Instant Boost Training

If you haven't heard about Instant Boost then you are in for a treat. This unique Central Command product ranks businesses on page 1 of Google within hours! Not 4 to 6 months - but literally hours.

On the course you will be provided with the knowhow and the tools to skilfully do it yourself.

Just imagine a clients reaction to seeing their business instantly appear on the first page of Google. It impresses the most sceptical or hardened of prospects and closes deal after deal.

Backup & Support

And of course, full backup and support is always at hand. Your success is our success!

Continuous Professional Development

Further regular training is conducted for you as a franchised Agency Director and for your staff and agents. These detailed sessions include marketing & development updates, new products, personal development and more.

Owning The Dream...

Central Command gives you the very real capability to build a six to seven figure income:

- ▶ Highly Profitable - Significant margins on consulting, products and services.
- ▶ Continuity Income - Many products and services provide you with ongoing residual income that exponentially grows month on month.
- ▶ Deal Making - Dramatically multiply your returns with contingency fees and create capital with Central Command's proven deal making methodology.
- ▶ No Stock Or Fulfilment Costs - You are able to dedicate your time developing new clients and supporting your current ones.
- ▶ Further Multiply Your Income With Up-Scaling - With Central Command support you can increase your efforts and profits by engaging agents to work for you on a contractual basis.
- ▶ Asset Value - Your agency acquires value as your clientele and reputation builds. As such, like any other business, you have the option to sell your agency should you wish to retire, move on or simply cash-in on your hard work.
- ▶ Operate From Anywhere - In this 'new' world some businesses provide you with the ability and the freedom to operate sitting on the beach in a far away land or in your pyjamas around the kitchen table. Central Command is such a business.
- ▶ Do Business Anywhere - Marketing is universal. The language may change but the principles remain the same. You have the opportunity to generate and gain clients around the world. You can truly operate an international business.

With Central Command you have the means, the method and the market.

Our Guarantee To You

“Failure is not an option”

When a prospective client is thinking about engaging or working with us (and with you as a Business Development & Marketing Agency Director), we provide them with an iron-clad guarantee.

We say, ‘let us do this for you because we know it’s fantastic and that you will be very impressed and happy. BUT if it doesn’t work then you don’t have to pay a penny for it. Deal?’ You bet it’s a deal.

What we’re doing is making them feel secure and comfortable by taking away the risk of loss. We are reversing that risk by transferring it to ourselves.

They can’t lose. So, the decision becomes a no-brainer.

That’s a great guarantee isn’t it? Be assured that we wouldn’t offer it if we weren’t 100% confident of the results. We know it works.

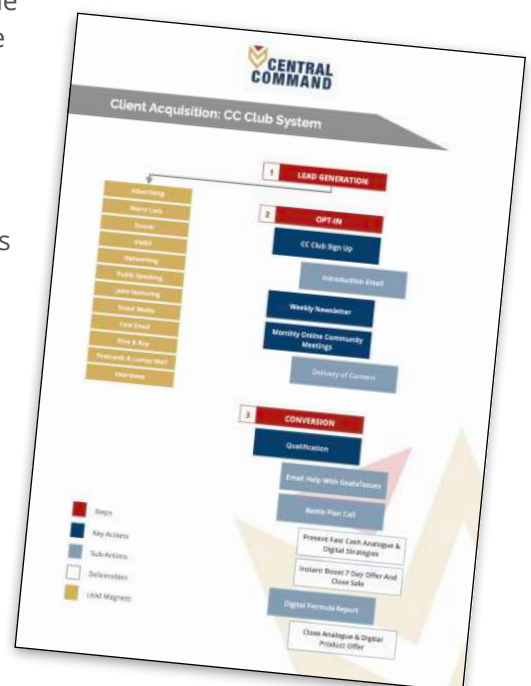

As you can imagine, it generates a lot of trust. And, with that in mind, we believe that it is only right that we offer you a risk-free guarantee too. Again, we offer this guarantee because we know that the Central Command systems work.

We recognise that joining us is a major decision. Some may see it as a risk. As such, we don’t believe that the risk should be yours, therefore, we reverse the risk. Therefore, this is not a punt.

Here’s how it works...

Generating customers is the lifeblood of any business - without customers you’re dead in the water. So, if after 12 months after the time of entering into your licence agreement with Central Command you’ve been unable to generate sufficient clients to cover your investment (using the Central Command client acquisition methods and systems), then you may elect to terminate your agency and receive a full refund of your investment. No quibble.

We provide this guarantee to you in good faith and on the basis that you in turn follow the step-by-step processes to using the client generation systems and give them your full attention and commitment.

Our Offer...

Ownership of a Central Command business development & marketing agency offers you the chance to build a lucrative lifestyle business and/or a dynamic company with your own agents and employees. It's your choice... Plus:

- ▶ Central Command provides you with an established and time-tested agency business model complete with training, resources, ongoing support and back office fulfilment. This means you can spend more productive time serving customers and building your business.

- ▶ You have access to the array of client acquisition systems including the CC Club. This is a highly attractive client magnet that helps you build your clientele, income and business far more swiftly and securely.

- ▶ Central Command consulting, products and services are highly innovative and most are unique in the market. Many are offered with our appealing guarantee such as 'pay on results' or 'try before you buy' offers that are designed to get you in door and seal the deal.

- ▶ Like all businesses, your income is commensurate with your efforts. However, once you have an established and loyal client base, repeat business, recurrent billing and the deal making opportunities will boost and secure your cashflow with residual income month on month.
- ▶ Longer term you can look to exit your business on your own terms by either selling or passing your agency on to a family member or colleague.

In all, owning a Central Command business development & marketing agency offers you a rewarding and exciting opportunity that enables you to fully realise your potential, ambitions and dreams.

Your Income

Your income is paid directly to you by Central Command from business development consulting, service and product billings. As detailed earlier, you also have the chance to utilise the Central Command Up-Scaling Process to expand your business through the recruitment of agents. These can substantially multiply your revenue and earnings.

Your Investment Launch Offer

Until 31st August 2022 the investment to own a Central Command franchise is GBP £14,997 for UK & Europe, and AUS $27,497 for Australia & New Zealand.

There is also a monthly fee of GBP £297 / AUS$547 for Central Command support services. NOTE that this fee is removed once your monthly agency revenue exceeds GBP £20,000 / AUS $37,000.

Joining Us...

Central Command is a professional organisation with professional people who share a common profile, experience, integrity and mindset.

The following personal attributes are important to ensure your success:

- ▶ Be self-motivated and self-starting... A 'take charge' kind of person.
- ▶ Open mindedness to new ideas and new methodologies.
- ▶ Enjoy helping others thrive and be rewarded accordingly.
- ▶ Be structured, diligent and prepared to follow a proven road map.
- ▶ Have a healthy self-belief and positive attitude.
- ▶ A driving ambition to build and achieve goals.

Once on-board, you will need sufficient financial resources to cover your work & living expenses.

Central Command Chiefs Of Staff

DAVID ABINGDON
Chief Executive Officer

David Abingdon has enjoyed success as a business consultant, deal maker and businessman – directly making one client over £35 ($67) million in just two and half years. For this he was paid a fee in excess of £1.27 ($2.4) million in fees.

He has taken three of his own companies from zero to multi-million enterprises – each in less than twelve months. Two of those successes were international business consulting and coaching companies.

Over the last 24 years David has trained in excess of over 3000 people from all walks of life and from around the world in business growth & development, traditional and digital marketing, sales, consulting, franchising and entrepreneurship. Directly and indirectly, he's helped thousands of businesses, consultants and entrepreneurs to achieve their visions and goals.

David is the author of the breakthrough business book 'Out Of The Box Marketing' and co-author of the college manual 'Advances in Marketing'. He has contributed and provided expert opinion and comment on TV, radio, newspapers and other media around the world

He was also featured as the philanthropic millionaire in the Channel 4 documentary 'How The Other Half Live', shown around the world. You can view the show here: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=f76asCz-ZwY>

DAVID MACK
Chief Service Officer

Following 16 years of active service as an Engineering Officer in the Royal Air Force, David worked with BAA at Heathrow Airport responsible for Operational Engineering and subsequently Utilities, later to take on the added role of Change Manager for a major program.

In 2002 David utilised his experience to assist a charity in the operation of a large activity and conference centre. Building on new skills, he then set up his own training company helping and guiding businesses in their development, team building and training requirements.

He used this same expertise in the role of Director of Training and Support for an international consulting franchise assisting in the success of over 400 business consultants .

More recently, David has been actively running mastermind groups and personally consulting with businesses in the Manufacturing, Retail, Optical and Hospitality sectors to help them achieve outstanding results.

He is an accredited expert in business growth services and has acquired vast experience of assisting and mentoring entrepreneurs in business development and sales growth.

Some Previous Success Stories

Carl Allen acquired equity in several companies and made £1.1 million in his first 18 months as a Consultant and Deal Maker... He was also given a brand new Porsche Cayenne (as part payment) by one of his clients.

UK based Frazer Fearnhead landed a Directorship with a 40% equity deal and retainer after completing his Consultant and Deal Maker training. Later he founded a national crowdfunding company.

Over the two months following her training, Dawn Hopkins enthusiastically worked to land 5 consulting and deal making clients with monthly retainers and a percentage of their gross revenues.

George Stamatakis from Melbourne used the training and strategies to gain equity and directorships in 6 companies and earned in excess of $1.2 million over a 12 month period as a Consultant and Deal Maker.

Praise For the Training, Tools And Systems

"This is an absolute must for anyone serious about business success and the information and tools blow away all boundaries and guarantee success when applied. David, you have created a World Class business success course and the training, delivery and content are excellent... By far the best I have received or witnessed."

Declan Bevan - Cork, Ireland

"This can be your turning point... Great! I would recommend David to all!"

Joachim Delmas - Paris France

"It has been a challenging but inspiring week. I am full of new ideas and in awe of the potential opportunities that can be made. A wealth of information and ideas, an amazing group of people and amazing depth of knowledge and experience from David Abingdon and David Mack."

Carol Barlow, London, UK

"This was the best course I've ever attended... David, thank you very much for putting all this together and sharing this knowledge with us... It offered me the key to releasing my existing marketing knowledge and turn it into a valuable business and a money making machine."

Elisabeth Schoch, Zurich, Switzerland

"A fantastic course, valuable, life long lessons... All the tools to do the job."

Christine Geeson - Felixstowe, UK

"You are exposed to enormous amounts of knowledge about business success in a powerful and effective way."

Ashok Chandalia - New Delhi, India

"It got better and better... Highly recommended."

Simon Brock, Devon, UK

"Extremely good, a wow factor on the concepts and I now have a head full of ideas!"

Harald Nesswitz, Munich, Germany

"...You remarkably walk away with a complete business kit in only five days... The only thing to consider is; is the information up to the mark? It most definitely is... I have clarity, confidence and direction."

Paul Hornsey-Pennell - Totnes, UK

"Insightful, concise, valuable and career changing. The interaction between the trainers works extremely well. A truly excellent programme easily worth the time and money."

Mathias Hauger - Edinburgh, UK
